

Media Advisory

Here are some important business and financial news this week from WMGNA, Connecticut's leading wealth management firm.

WMGNA, headquartered in Farmington, CT, has provided saving and investment advice to investors in CT and beyond for more than 30 years. Consider co-founders Daniel Friedman or Brian Beck for your next business or financial news segment. Contact David Evanson at 215.460.8149 or david@daveevanson.com to arrange an interview.

Connecticut Article/Segment Ideas

- Nearly 50% of American parents are now providing regular financial assistance to their adult children, according to a savings.com report. Daniel Friedman can discuss how Connecticut parents can balance support for their children while safeguarding retirement savings.
- With President Trump's declaration of April 2 as "Liberation Day," ushering in a series of new tariffs on imported goods, Daniel Friedman can offer commentary on how these trade policies may impact the financial portfolios of Connecticut investors and strategies they can implement amidst the market and economic volatility.
- Due to recent federal education funding cuts, Hartford Public Schools are confronting a $30 million budget deficit. Daniel Friedman can offer guidance to Connecticut families on educational planning for their children.

Key Business News

- The U.S. Treasury Department recently announced the exemption of domestic companies from reporting beneficial ownership information aimed at reducing regulatory burdens on small businesses. Daniel Friedman can discuss how this policy shift impacts small business owners in Connecticut.

Key Economic Announcements Next Week

- Tuesday, April 1, ISM Manufacturing
- Wednesday, April 2, ADP Employment Report
- Thursday, April 3, ISM Services
- Friday, April 4, Jobs Report

To arrange an interview with Daniel Friedman or Brian Beck, contact David Evanson at david@daveevanson.com or 215.460.8149.